

Where the Money Goes.

Building the Local Economy.

Cherokee Nation is the largest tribal government in the United States with more than 360,000 citizens, 40 percent of whom reside within its 7,000-square-mile Oklahoma jurisdiction. To maintain self reliance and economic stability, Cherokee Nation strives to create meaningful jobs and develop a vibrant hub of industry and commerce in Oklahoma.

Cherokee Nation Businesses (CNB) is the holding company that develops and manages Cherokee Nation's diverse group of businesses, including many small businesses that are 8(a) and HUBZone certified. CNB generates revenue for Cherokee Nation, creating jobs, providing world-class entertainment, promoting Cherokee culture and performing award-winning work for commercial and government clients. CNB's goal is to produce profits that will build a stronger economy for Cherokee Nation, solve community-wide problems and empower its citizens to serve one another with dignity.

Solving Problems. Transforming Lives.

With more than 11,000 employees, Cherokee Nation and its businesses make an annual economic impact in northeast Oklahoma of $2.03 billion. CNB is engaged in preserving Cherokee culture, contributing to services for Cherokee Nation citizens, and supporting the local economy through its programs and services, such as:

- Investing nearly $100 million to build new and renovate existing Cherokee Nation health care facilities to provide the best care possible for tribal citizens.
- Creating more than 9,400 new jobs since 2000.
- Operating the largest tribal health system in the United States, including a 58-bed hospital, eight outpatient facilities with medical, dental, vision and other health care services.
- Supporting Head Start, early childhood classrooms, Sequoyah Schools for grades 7-12 and Cherokee language revitalization programs.
- Providing more than $6.8 million in higher education scholarships to more than 3,300 students annually.
- Providing $5.4 million annually to Oklahoma schools from car tag sales.
- Serving 62,505 households with USDA food assistance and 2,984 households with low income heating and energy assistance.
- Building roads, bridges and water lines that benefit all Oklahomans.
